

The British
Chamber of Commerce
Guangdong

Testo Instruments (Shenzhen) Ltd (www.testo.com) is a leading manufacturer of portable electronic measuring instruments for measuring temperature, humidity, pressure, gas concentration and water quality. Established in 1957, our headquarters, located in Germany, holds 23 subsidiaries worldwide. 1,300 testo employees in different countries have committed themselves to providing our customers with the best products and services.

For our Shenzhen team we are looking for a

LOGISTICS MANAGER

Major Responsibilities:

- manage all purchasing related activities, e.g. materials planning, sourcing, negotiation, costing, vendors assessment, order processing, legal compliance etc.
- production planning and inventory control
- logistics strategy development & implementation
- international and national supply chain management
- lead & work with a team of diversified staff

Requirements:

- bachelor degree in business with certificate/diploma in procurement / purchasing / logistics
- at least 5 years' sourcing/logistics experience in electronic field, min. 3 years in managerial position
- fluent written & spoken English, Putonghua & Cantonese
- excellent planning, negotiation and communication skills
- willing to travel
- experience in SAP preferred

We offer competitive salary package & fringe benefits to the suitable candidates. Interested parties, please send us your full resume with salary history to: Ms Zhang, testo Instruments (Shenzhen) Co., Ltd. 3-5/F, 19 Building, Xinguang Road, Xili Town, Nanshan District, Shenzhen, 518055 PRC or e-mail to: kzhang@testo.net.cn